

Announcement from the Khunyamwittaya School
Regarding policy of Integrity Transparency Assessment without corruption

.....

Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand in 2017, Official Information Act in 1997, Royal Decree on Rules on Principles and Good Governance in 2003 and National strategy in prevention and suppression of corruption Phase 3 (2517-2021), set a vision that “Zero Tolerance & Clean Thailand”. Government policy General Prayut Chan-o-cha, Prime Minister 12 September 2014 as Article 10. in the promotion of the administration of the government with good governance principles and the prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct in the government sector. Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission has established guidelines for the implementation of the integrity and transparency assessment system of government agencies, to build confidence in the operation of morality and transparency. Verifiable by government agencies And good civil servants

Khunyamwittaya School would like to request the moral and transparency policy without corruption. By promoting Support all civil servants and educational personnel to perform their duties with honesty and good governance. Together to protect the national interest and fairness to the people equally and equally To achieve those intentions Therefore, the guidelines for civil servants and personnel in the Khunyamwittaya School shall comply and proceed in accordance with 10 KPI of ITA Online as follows:

1. Raise awareness and instill values in the fight against corruption, including effective internal balancing
2. Manage and comply with good governance by focusing on the needs of the people with good, fast, correct, equal, and fair service

3. Identify personal and public interests by not accepting corruption behavior that will cause social sanction. Causing shame and fear of making a mistake or corruption
4. Not seeking personal benefits by rejecting bribes or conflicts of interest
5. Promote to work in full compliance with the laws, rules and regulations. By giving the opportunity for the stakeholder, school, and the public to participate in the operational inspection By broadcast information and conducting activities in all forms
6. Establish communication channels, publicize To support operations as network partners Cooperation to prevent and suppress corruption By allowing the public to provide information, clues, or complaints through the Secondary Educational Service Chiang Mai
7. Consulting Suggestions for guidance Including monitoring and evaluation of the said cooperation to the full capacity If fraud is found, investigation will be conducted. And seriously disciplinary action against the corruption

Announcement as 1st September 2022

(Mr. Prasit Khemsuwan)

Director of Khunyuanwittaya School